

School of Law

LUISS

Partnership LUISS University and FAO

FAO elearning Academy

Daniela Corona (Ph.D.)

26 March 2024

1. Main programme: LL.M. in Food Law (since 2018)

4 courses → 163 students over 6 years

TITLE
1.	Introduction to trade, food security and nutrition
2.	World Trade Organization Agreement on Agriculture
3.	Creating an enabling environment for responsible investment in agriculture and food systems
4.	Building a common vision for sustainable food and agriculture
In the past also:
	Pesticide management and child labour prevention
	Enhancing participation on CODEX activities

The 4 courses are “encapsulated” in Module V – Food security and environment

Students are asked to follow the courses

The assessment is done through 4 short essays drafted at home (around 1000 words each)

After a positive assessment and the tracking check the following mention is added in the transcript:

“The Master of Law (LL.M.) in Food Law is developed in collaboration with the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) elearning Academy”.

2. FAO Module: since 2023

6 courses → 46 students

A) FAO elearning courses related to the impact of climate change on the agri-food systems

1.	Sustainable food systems: An introduction
2.	Sustainable food systems: Concept and framework
3.	Sustainable food systems: Operationalizing the approach

B) FAO elearning courses related to Climate Change Negotiations for Agriculture

4.	Climate Change Negotiations for Agriculture Stakeholders
5.	Introduction to climate-smart agriculture
6.	Migration and Climate Change

The Module has been organized in the framework of the 2023 WFF

Luiss UN Model Programme: Agrifood System Transformation accelerates Climate Action - “Great Climate Migration”

Students has been asked to follow the 6 courses + online training from FAO experts + 1 wrap-up session with the Director of the Module

2024 WFF Good Food for All, Today and Tomorrow
→ 2024 FAO Module, work in progress!

3. Planned activities

We are working to integrate selected FAO elearning courses in several post-graduate programmes:

- Luiss School of Law (SoL)
- Luiss Business School (LBS)
- Luiss School of Government (SoG)

Possibility to reach hundreds of students every year!